COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

- a) The composition of the Board is to be reviewed regularly to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and expertise is present to facilitate successful strategic direction.
- b) In appointing new members to the Board, consideration is given to the ability of the appointee to contribute to the ongoing effectiveness of the Board, to exercise sound business judgment, to commit the necessary time to fulfill the requirements of the role effectively and to contribute to the development of the strategic direction of the Company.
- c) The majority of the Board is comprised of non-executive Directors.
- d) Where practical, at least 50% of the Board will be independent. An independent Director is one who is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship, which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with, the exercise of independent judgment. Independent Directors should meet the definition of what constitutes independence as set out in the Australian Stock Exchange Limited (ASX) Corporate Governance Guidelines and Annexure A.
- e) Directors must disclose their interests. The independence of the Directors should be regularly assessed by the Board in light of the interests disclosed by them.
- f) Directors are expected to bring their independent views and judgement to the Board and must declare immediately to the Board any potential or active conflicts of interest.
- g) Directors must declare immediately to the Board, and the Board will determine whether to declare to the market, any loss of independence.
- h) No member of the Board may serve for more than three years or past the third annual general meeting following their appointment, whichever is the longer, without being re-elected by the shareholders.
- i) Prior to the Board proposing re-election of non-executive Directors, their performance will be evaluated by the Nomination Committee to ensure that they continue to contribute effectively to the Board.
- j) The Board should comprise Directors with a mix of qualifications, experience and expertise which will assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities, as well as assisting the Company in achieving growth and delivering value to shareholders.

THE ROLE OF THE CHAIRMAN

- a) The Chairman is responsible for the leadership of the Board, ensuring it is effective, setting the agenda of the Board, conducting the Board meetings and conducting the shareholder meetings.
- b) The Chairman should facilitate the effective contribution of all Directors and promote constructive and respectful relations between Board members and management.
- c) In the event that the Chairman is absent from a meeting of the Board then the Board shall appoint a Chairman for that meeting.

BOARD COMMITTEES

- a) To assist the Board in fulfilling its duties, the Board has established an Audit Committee and Remuneration Committee and a Nomination Committee when it considers appropriate.
- b) Committee charters are approved by the Board and reviewed when necessary.
- c) The Board will ensure that the Committees are sufficiently funded to enable them to fulfill their roles and discharge their responsibilities.
- d) Members of Committees are appointed by the Board. The Board may appoint additional Directors to Committees or remove and replace members of Committees by resolution.

BOARD MEETINGS

- a) There must be two Directors present at a meeting to constitute a quorum.
- b) The Board will schedule formal Board meetings at least quarterly and hold additional meetings, including by telephone, as may be required.
- c) Non-executive Directors may confer at scheduled times without management being present.
- d) The minutes of each Board meeting shall be prepared by the Company Secretary, approved by the Chairman and circulated to Directors after each meeting.
- e) Minutes of meetings must be approved at the next Board meeting.

THE COMPANY SECRETARY

- a) When requested by the Board the Company Secretary will facilitate the flow of information of the Board, between the Board and its Committee and between senior executives and non-executive Directors.
- b) The Company Secretary is to facilitate the induction of new Directors.
- c) The Company Secretary is to facilitate the implementation of Board policies and procedures.
- d) The Company Secretary is to provide advice to the Board, on corporate governance matters.
- e) All Directors have access to the advice and services provided by the Company Secretary.
- f) The Board has the responsibility for the appointment and removal of the Company Secretary.
